STEWARDSHIP SPOTLIGHT

As we continue to highlight examples of stewardship, keep in mind that these are ways that you are welcome to join fellow parishioners that may not be or have been necessarily listed on time and talent sheets or stewardship appeals. Just as the Lenten small groups, these are meant to show you places your gifts and talents could be used or to spark ideas for something new.

LOCAL FOOD DISTRIBUTIONS - For many years, parishioners of all ages have been helping at and even directing the food distribution days in Macon and Shelbina, supplying individuals and families in need with food and other items.

ENGLISH AS A SECOND LANGUAGE (ESL) -

A joint effort between our deanery’s Spanish outreach priest and a parishioner from St. Mary and non-parishioner volunteers , this class brings together a community of immigrants who are offered Spanish mass and free English classes.

THE WISDOM OF FULTON SHEEN

Once a man ceases to be of service to his neighbor, he begins to be a burden to him.
