What is Cursillo?

A Cursillo is a three day experience that begins on Thursday evening and ends on Sunday evening. The primary focus is helping the participants be better Christians, leaders in their family, parish and community. During these three days, those attending listen to talks given by priests, deacons, religious sister, and laypersons. The also participate in Eucharist and Reconciliation and share in the fellowship of Jesus Christ and each other.

THE WISDOM OF FULTON SHEEN

God does not always spare the good from grief. The Father spared not the Son, and the Son spared not the mother.
